IN THE FAR COUNTRY

- Worn as thou art with fears, weary and wanting peace,
 Jesus can dry thy tears, give to thy soul release.
- 3. Wanderer! oh, return!Famished and lone art thou:One o'er the lost doth yearn,runneth to meet thee now.
- 4. Come to the Father's heart, come in thy direst need; wanderer as thou art, here is a home indeed.
- 5. Off with thy rags of sin, on with the robe of white! Pardon and peace within, darkness – exchanged for light.
- 6. Now in the holy way, marked by the Saviour's blood, walk as a child of day, living henceforth to God.
- 7. Tell of that saving name,
 Jesus who died for thee;
 Jesus alone proclaim,
 Jesus, who set thee free!
