HOMESICKNESS

- 2. Threadbare now our garb with age still repair is needing, and our feet with pilgrimage painful are and bleeding.
- 3. Gladly would we be at home, free from toil and dangers, and no longer houseless roam in a land of strangers;
- 4. gladly lay aside the load which our flesh inherits, worshipping and serving God with the ransomed spirits.
- 5. But since thou dost yet delay to thyself to take us, Lord, prepare us while we stay, meet for heaven make us.
- 6. Richly shall we then be blessed, when, our warfare ending, we enjoy the promised rest, with our Lord ascending.
