THESE ARE THE TRUE SAYINGS OF GOD

- 2. Sure the record; Christ has died, bearing on the cross our sin; is not this the gate of life? Son of Adam, enter in!
- 3. Sure the record; Christ is risen, he hath broken every chain: silent stands the empty tomb, never to be filled again.
- 4. Sure the promise; Christ will come, though the promise lingers still: heavy seems the wing of time, weary with the weight of ill.
- 5. Signs are mustering everywhere, and the world is growing old; love is low and faith is dull, truth and right are bought and sold!
- 6. Then when men are heedless grown, and the virgins slumber all, when iniquity abounds, then he cometh, Judge of all!
- 7. Cometh he to raise his own, wipe the tear from every eye; cometh he to right the wrong, trodden truth to lift on high.
- 8. To dethrone the lie of lies, each dark falsehood to destroy; to begin the age of light, earth's long sighed-for Sabbath-joy.
