KNOW YE NOT?

2. What! Know ye not that the true temple of the Lord are ye, home of the Holy Ghost? Defile, destroy it not, but keep it, keep it without spot. It is no earthly shrine, but heavenly and divine, – pollute ye not its courts!

- 5. What! Know ye not that they who love the world have not in them the love of God? That love comes from a holy heaven, and to us here on earth is given, to draw us up from earth, to where it has its birth, the bosom of our God.
- 3. What! Know ye not that saints shall judge the world, nay, angels too? Judge then true judgment here, walking in ways upright, as judges of the age of light, with holy charity, yet with calm equity, doing and speaking truth.
- 6. What! Know ye not that thus even here ye must be holy men? The Nazarites of God; that walk with the unseen, with feet washed in the laver clean, and garments undefiled.

  Though all around be soiled, thou must be pure and fair.

4. What! Know ye not that the unrighteous cannot enter in, nor tread the holy ground?

The imperfect is not there, but beauty, beauty everywhere, perfection near and far; no taint, nor sin, nor jar, — all holiness and peace!

Words: Horatius Bonar. Music: Johannes Thomas Rüegg.
Copyright © 2013 Johannes Thomas Rüegg. Source: www.christmysong.com/860/