

2. Son of God! thy Father's bosom ever was thy dwelling-place; his delight, in him rejoicing, one with him in power and grace: oh, what wondrous love and mercy! thou didst lay thy glory by, and for us didst come from heaven, as the Lamb of God, to die.

3. Lamb of God! when we behold thee lowly in a manger laid; wand'ring as a homeless Stranger, in the world thy hands had made; when we see thee in the garden, in thine agony of blood; at thy grace we are confounded, holy, spotless Lamb of God.

4. When we see thee, as the Victim, bound to the accursed tree, for our guilt and folly stricken, all our judgment borne by thee, – Lord, we own with hearts adoring, thou hast loved us unto blood: glory, glory everlasting, be to thee, the Lamb of God!
