LISTEN TO THE WONDROUS STORY

2. Came into a lowly manger, dwelt beneath a humble shed, and, among his own a stranger, knew not where to lay his head; went from city unto city, all his life was doing good, weeping o'er his friend with pity, when beside the grave he stood.

J. Love all human love exceeding brought him to a cruel death; even then, though hanging bleeding on the cross, his latest breath spent he for his murderers, praying to his Father to forgive; to the thief repentant saying, "Thou in Paradise shalt live!"

4. Oh, what love in God the Father to bestow his only Son!
Oh, what love in Christ, who rather than the world should be undone, came himself to seek and save us, came to claim us for his own; freely all our sins forgave us, raised us to his glorious throne!
