"REJOICING IN HOPE"

- 2. It makes my heart with rapture beat, the thought of that bright day, when I shall worship at thy feet, and bask beneath thy ray.
- 3. It cheers this weary, tempted breast, midst all its anxious strife; the blessèd hope of God's own rest, the crown of endless life.
- 4. My faith anticipates the day, when sin and Satan's power for ever shall be swept away, and death shall be no more.
- 5. But, oh, the thought of seeing thee, in all thy glorious light, who groaned, and bled, and died for me, in love's mysterious might!
- 6. Thy blood has washed me from my sin, thy righteousness my dress; thine arm has led, by power unseen of mercy, truth, and grace.
- 7. O Lord, thou hast prepared a crown of glory bright for me; at thy dear feet I'll cast it down, and give all praise to thee!

Words: James George Deck. Music: Johannes Thomas Rüegg. Copyright © 2014 Johannes Thomas Rüegg. Source: www.christmysong.com/953/